

Community Involvement

Weir and Associates takes great pride in supporting the community in which we live. Whether through the provision of pro bono services or through involvement in Hong Kong's local community building organizations, Weir and Associates has committed itself to making the Hong Kong community a better place.

Examples of this commitment include:

- pro bono legal services for the underprivileged
- serving on public not-for-profit boards
- our staff working as community volunteers
- assisting in social matters including adoption to immigration.
- counseling struggling micro-entrepreneurs
- significant charitable contributions to not-for-profit groups throughout the year
- coaching youth sports
- acting as legal advisors to Charitable trusts and socially responsible companies
